William Tate Appointed to Board of Directors at Idaho North Resources

December 2, 2014 - Coeur d'Alene - Idaho North Resources (OTCQB:IDAH) (“IDAH” or “the Company”) announced today that William Tate has joined its Board of Directors.

Mr. Tate has more than 40 years of experience in the financial industry. Prior to his recent retirement, he worked at Wells Fargo Advisors in Portland, Oregon for 20 years as a portfolio manager, stock and bond broker, and financial advisor. Mr. Tate has also served as a board member of several non-profits. He holds a degree in Business Administration from Arizona State University.

IDAH President Mark Fralich stated, “We are very pleased to welcome Bill to our Board. With his decades of experience in financial markets, he is a superb addition to our team. We invite shareholders in the Reno area to visit with Bill and me this week at the Annual Meeting of the American Exploration & Mining Association (formerly Northwest Mining Association) at the JA Nugget Casino Resort in Sparks, Nevada. We are exhibiting in Booth 15 of the Core Shack area.”

In conjunction with the appointment of Mr. Tate, Erik Panke has resigned as a Director, but will continue in his capacity as the Company’s CFO. The Board thanks Mr. Panke for his past service as Director and his continued service as CFO.

About Idaho North Resources

Idaho North Resources is a U.S. based junior company exploring for gold, silver, and base metals in Nevada. The Company recently finalized an Exploration Program Agreement with Coeur Mining, under which Coeur will fund, and have exclusive earn-in rights, to certain of the Company’s central Nevada projects. The first Earn-In Option Agreement with Coeur was subsequently signed on the Klondyke Project, near the Hasbrouck gold-silver deposits. The Company also has long-term lease agreements on the Green Monster and Divide projects, as well as the Eagleville project, where it recently completed an initial drill program. Idaho

North Resources is a fully reporting company, listed on the OTCQB under the symbol IDAH.
