Patrick R. Smith Appointed to Technical Advisory Committee at Idaho North Resources

Idaho North Resources (IDAH) (“IDAH” or “the Company”) today announced that Patrick R. Smith has joined the Company’s Technical Advisory Committee.

Mr. Smith is a mining executive and professional geologist with 35 years of experience in senior management, corporate development, strategic planning, and exploration in the international minerals industry. He served 32 years in the Rio Tinto organization including posts as Managing Director Exploration for the Australasia Region and as a London-based Exploration Executive. He was also Exploration Manager for Alaska while with the Kennecott Exploration division. He is experienced in all aspects of mineral exploration and evaluation and has a track record of managing successful exploration teams and advancing projects through the pre-feasibility stage.

Mr. Smith is currently President and CEO for Heatherdale Resources Ltd., a Hunter Dickinson Inc. (HDI) group company. He holds a B.Sc. (Honors) in Geology from Eastern Washington University and has completed the Business Leadership Development program at Duke University as well as the Strategic Leadership Program at the London School of Business. He is a Professional Registered Geologist in Utah, Wyoming, and Washington, a Fellow of the Society of Economic Geologists, and a member of the Alaska Miners Association.

Idaho North President Mark Fralich stated, “We are very pleased to welcome Patrick Smith to our team. His wide-ranging skill set, experience, and vision will add immense value as we continue to acquire and advance our property portfolio in the prolific goldfields of Nevada.”

About Idaho North Resources

Idaho North Resources is a U.S. based junior company exploring for gold, silver, and base metals in Nevada. The Company recently finalized an Exploration Program Agreement with Coeur Mining, under which Coeur will fund, and have exclusive earn-in rights, to certain of the Company’s central Nevada projects. The first Earn-In Option Agreement with Coeur was subsequently signed on the Klondyke Project, near the Hasbrouck gold-silver deposits. The Company also has long-term lease agreements on the Green Monster and Divide projects, as well as the Eagleville project, where it recently completed an initial drill program. Idaho North Resources is a fully reporting company, listed on the OTCQB under the symbol IDAH.
